Grandma Miriam was always present in good and bad times. She Always welcomed people with a warm hug and smile. She was truly a trooper and will be dearly missed. She was always there for her granddaughter, Samantha, and was her best friend through thick and thin. Everyone that got to know her and her spirit are truly blessed.Lizette Negroni

My memories of Mariam are fond and many, as she and my mother Violet were friends at Menorah Manor. I spent a lot of time with Mariam and Samantha. Her laughter will be missed on earth, but will echo in Heaven..
