Loretta Kiser Hill lit a candle in honor of Jayme.

Jayme was like a daughter to me when she was a teenager, she and my daughter Liz, were the best of friends. She stayed many many days and nights at our house. Jaime was always respectful and helpful and sometimes a little crazy. Our family is very sadend by her passing. I pray for all of her family and friends.

Jayme gave love and understanding to everyone she met. Her smile and caring could be felt by all that knew or even met her. The world was better with her in it but she must be needed for more important things. Truly an angel.
