I can't believe it's been 5 years since you have been passed away. So many times I think of you and remember some of our talks. I miss you so much. I love you mom! We will be together with all the Angels in heaven soon. ❤️

Mom I remember how you use to wait and worry for the boys when they would be on their way home for Military leave. Then sit up most nights late with them talking, playing cards, board games. I remember once one of them got into trouble and you chased him down the hallway with a broom. Don't think you used it though. Dad bought you a Microwave when they first came out at Mcgomey Wards store and we couldn't hide it..it was to big. Dad had it set up on the kitchen counter and when you saw it..your eyes lit up with joy! I miss talking to you. I know you are in a better place with no worry no pain and with friends and family who to have past on in life. But I know we will see each other again one day. P.S mom...you won't be able to drink your cola where you are... I love with all my heart. Please tell everyone I miss them. ❤️
