The Finn Family; my heart and prayers go out for you all at this incredible time of loss. No words can provide comfort now, but know you have many that will be thinking of you and praying for you to find some strength to endure this and you all having such a close family, will get you through this! ❤️ your old neighbors, Darlinda and the Gaskins family!

Dear Roseann, Lee & Jay, Vennatta & Eric, Richard, Bobby & Colleen & Steve, I'm so sorry to hear about John. I spoke to my brother Dean this morning and he and I both want to send our condolences to everyone in the family. You are in our thoughts. We have a lot of good memories while growing up in the neighborhood that include Johnny, Richard and the Finn family. Thinking of everyone. David Gardella and family

You're in my prayers and I send my deepest sympathy. My memories of John are burned in my mind so I will never forget him. Our high school years were full of fun and crazy adventure, from the drive in, the ball field, to the beach. Those were the days and John made them memorable. RIP old buddy, Rob Klein

Finn family I'm very sorry to here about John . I know this is late but I just learned of his passing the other day. I shared many good times with John back in the day but had not seen him in many years. I'm truly saddened to here this news. I will never forget him and pray that your family and faith carry you through.Darrin Grubb and Family
