A very special lady, Nan, we haven't known you too long, but what an honor to know you. You warmed our hearts the moment we met. You will hold a place in my heart forever. I will never have to ask you 'where are you going?' (personal joke) because it'll be in heaven. My thoughts and prayers to the family and friends. Love you forever.

Lynda, Raymond, Thomas and Theresa, you probably don't remember me because it's been many, many years. I have wonderful memories of your mother from when Lynda and I were teenagers and even younger. She was lovely, and I know you miss her terribly. Sending loving thoughts and memories. With sincere condolences, Elaine Herman
