Grace P. Quinn

JUL 16, 1926 - FEB 1, 2019

Grace Hogan Quinn 92, was born in Hoboken, NJ to George Hogan and Margaret Hackett Hogan. She attended Saint Michaels High School in Jersey City, NJ and graduated with her future husband Ed. She commuted to NYC where she worked for the phone company. She married her high school sweetheart, Edward J Quinn Jr. (1927-1984), after his return from a tour of duty in the Navy Seebies in the South Pacific during WWII. They settled in Ridgewood, NJ and raised four children before retiring to Saint Petersburg Florida in 1974.

Grace was a devoted member of and eucharistic minister at Most Holy Name of Jesus Catholic Church in Gulfport. She volunteered for church events as well as local charities and public events. She enjoyed many an afternoon playing bridge with friends, going to the beach, watching for dolphins, enjoying an occasional glass of white wine and enjoying all the things that were part of her slice of paradise in Florida. Grace was an avid Tampa Bay Rays fan and watched all their games. She also liked to watch tennis and cheered on her favorites. Grace was active in planning events for her condo building particularly the Saint Patrick's luncheon at O'Maddy's. Grace enjoyed bowling and morning water aerobics with friends for many years. Grace loved to travel to faraway places and instilled in her children a love of travel.

Grace was a loving wife, mother, sister, aunt, grandmother, & great-grandmother. She has a large extended family and circles of friends. She is survived by her son Ed (Lenda) of Overgaard, AZ, and daughters Barbara (Curt) Eck of Seminole, Nancy (Roy) Quinn-Bookbinder and Maureen York, both of St. Petersburg, grand children Kristin (Dustin) Buchanan and Mercedes (Tim) Cimino, and great grandchildren Kole and Gage Buchanan and Atlee Ellis.

My husband and I send our sincere sympathy to the family of Grace Quinn. She had a special way of making everyone feel welcome especially her fourth floor friends here at the Buckingham building in Gulfport. We will miss her and her friendly spirit. Bill and Ginger Brantner
