I remember his distinguished laugh, and his smooth, Salsa dancing steps. He had a good sense of humor and would say funny things in Spanish like "Pa eso bebe". May he rest in peace.

I have so many memories but of the many, was your love for the music. There's so many songs that remind me of you, like Knock three times by Tony Orlando and Dawn. You had your shares of ups and downs but you always had a smile on your face. You were such a prankster always pranking us and you were the first to laugh. You loved being with the family and spoke so highly of Mita. In fact in our last conversation you mentioned how much you missed her. I guess now you can all be together once again. I will miss you, until we meet again, may you rest in peace!
