Mrs. Carolyn Ann Molloy

AUG 25, 1934 - MAR 22, 2019

Carolyn Ann Molloy of Palm Harbor, Florida, passed away peacefully at Suncoast Hospice North Pinellas Brookside in Palm Harbor. She was 84. Carolyn was born August 25, 1934 in Cincinnati, Ohio; the beautiful daughter of the late Harry and Lilian Macke. Carolyn embraced her role as a wife and mother being actively involved in the many activities and life experiences she shared with her family. She conveyed an air of elegance, sophistication and grace as she participated in many social activities and events through the years. Throughout her life, Carolyn became quite the collector of antiques – specifically the everyday items associated with daily commonplace use through the ages. She was a beloved wife, devoted mother, loving grandmother, dear sister and loyal friend who will be sorely missed. Carolyn leaves behind to cherish her memory her beloved husband of 64+ years, Earl F. Molloy and their three children; Connie Marie Romito (Dean), Brian Michael Molloy (Maria-Helene Fredericks) and Douglas Joseph Molloy (Mary Lou Brink). She was the loving grandmother of six grandchildren; Sean, Luke, Eric, Rachel Taya and Matthew Molloy. Carolyn is also the dear sister of Harriett Jones and Richard Macke. Memorial services will be 11am, Saturday, March 30, 2019 in the chapel of Memorial Park Funeral Home 5750 49th St. N, St. Petersburg, FL 33709. Online memories, photos and condolences to her family may be shared on Carolyn's tribute page at www.memorialparkfuneralhome.com
