Andy was one of my best friends throughout middle and high school. We played on the same baseball teams for many years, some of which his dad was our manager and mentor. Although we lost touch for many years after high school, I was very happy when we connected again once we had both retired. It was a blessing to know him and he will live on in my memories forever. Rest in peace my dear friend. Bruce Wilson.

Andy was my buddy and friend as he was too many, many people. He could light up a room with his smile and big personality. Always joking and laughing. He always seemed to be happy to see me and always made me feel special. I will miss him but I know that he is resting now in heaven with his mom and dad who he loved dearly. Rest in peace my friend. Andy, as we called him, was a wonderful person. He will be greatly missed. I remember speaking to him about two weeks before he passed. He said he wasn't feeling well, and I told him I would pray for him. My deepest condolences to his family. Rest in eternal peace, Andy.
