My Aunt Betty was one of a kind. When I was seven (7) years old I remember her having chunky highlights (very trendy at the time) and her letting me, Renee and Carmen do her makeup while she relaxed on her bed. It was awesome. I did this recently with my granddaughter and she had so much fun. I told her about my aunt letting me do it to her. I always associate Cadillac's with wings to her and her beloved cat Bobo. I remember her and Roger coming over to our house in Pinellas Park, FL to tell us they were having a baby Glen. I was so excited. I was so sorry to hear about the fall she took which eventually lead to her sudden passing. I feel terrible for my Uncle Roger and all of her kids, grands and great grands. I have no idea what they're going through but wanted them to know I loved Betty and the entire family and wanted to send my condolences to them. God bless.

Mother, You were my everything, my life. As I grew from a baby until now you have loved me and you have shown me how to love even when I couldn't even love myself for all my past behaviors, good, bad or indifferent. You have always shown me there was a better way from the very beginning. The only way JESUS. I'm so glad I found HIM. Thank you for having faith in me. I will remember you always. Loving you always Carmen
