I miss you. I just miss you. There are so many times at night that I just want to pick up my phone and call you. I miss hearing about the kids and Cedric and your day. I know you're at least not suffering in pain anymore and I'm grateful for that. You lived in so much pain for so many years and I miss having someone who understands the pain I live with everyday. You always made me feel better and we could always empathize with one another. Life has gone on but is certainly not the same without you here to share it with. I really miss you tonite. I just want to be able to call you and check on you. I always checked on you but it wasn't good enough. The words "I miss you" aren't good enough. You'll always be my bestest and one day we will be laughing and playing Mspacman again. Love you honey ❤️😊

I can't believe you're gone a whole year. The world has certainly changed so much since you've been gone. I talk to you everyday but miss the sound of your voice talking back to me. You would have so much to say right now, especially about tRump. He's such a horrible man; no regard for the rule of law or the constitution, but worst of all, no regard for human life. It's a scary time in our lives. I miss you so much my bestest. I know you're watching over us and Teresa and the kids need that so much right now. I don't hear from them but they are always in my heart and prayers. I love you Marylou and that's forever. I hope you have found peace and happiness. Hug everyone on your side for me. You're still my bestest. ❤️

Not one day goes by that I don't think of you and miss you so much. I was just telling my friend about how I did repair work on your car and how you would say "ya, but I'm the best light holder ever". We had so many laughs. I miss that the most, our memories we shared and the laughs. I miss the sound of your laugh. You were so funny and had such a great sense of humor. I miss you so much my bestest. I feel you with me and around me, but... it's just not the same. I miss you Monica ❤️ most of all, I love you 😊❤️

Was thinking all day today about the year we took Jonathan trick-or-treating, he and I dressed as witches and you dressed in some crazy outfit. We had so many times of so much fun. I think of you everyday and have shed tears when I've watched the leaves change on the trees, knowing how much you absolutely loved this time of year in PA. I really thought we were going to be able to get you here for it this year. I talk to you when I'm driving, feeling truly that you are with me in spirit enjoying the spectacular colors on the trees. I miss your voice my bestest, most of all I miss your laughter and tight, warm, lasting hugs. I love you ❤️❤️

If not, I know it will be another story you will tell me when we see each other again :) I love you, always.

Mary Lou and I worked at the clinic in the early 1990's. We became friends and remained friends for years. When I was my Mom's caregiver she would come over and spend time with her so Joe and I could go out for a couple of hours. All she wanted was her coffee. She was in the hospital years ago and I called and asked her what she needed and she said coffee so we fulfilled her wish, it was like liquid gold to her. She always had a smile and a story. When my Mom passed away I gave her the Infant of Prague statue that my Mom cherished and she put it in the front seat of her car and put a seat belt on it so it wouldn't get damaged. She called me a couple of weeks before she passed and wanted to get together for lunch but time ran out on us. I will always keep her in my heart. She was an amazing woman and always made you feel good just to talk to her. We were so sorry to hear of your loss. Cathy Wos

You were my best friend and losing you has left a hole in my heart and an emptiness in my life that will never be filled. You were funny and kind and selfless but above all, when you loved someone, your love for them was fierce, protective and unconditional. I hope heaven has Mspacman because you owe me a few billion games. I don't know what I'm going to do without you..... I love you Marylou ❤️ Your bestest amigo ❤️

Mary Lou used to tell me stories about you, she always referred to you as "my friend Dee". I know she valued your friendship. I'm so happy you shared some memories, I know that it would mean so much to her. Thank you for sharing your memories of our truly extraordinary friend. We were truly blessed to have had her in our lives.

I met Mary Lou in the 1970's when I moved to Florida, through my sister who met her in College. W actually shared an apartment for a few years and she was a great friend. I remember once when she went on a strict diet, and she would sit at the table at dinner time and WATCH ME EAT!! She was a lot of fun, always laughing and joking around. Once when she worked at the local,hospital she tried to hook me up with this young, handsome doctor! (Her ideo totally, not mine). He caught on to her devious plans and would have nothing to do with matchmaking! Yes, she was always thinking of others and I remember her fierce and total love for her grandpop and her neice Teresa!! She was one of a kind for sure! So sorry she is gone!
