Evelyn and I used to walk about 3 miles to kindergarten together, ride bicycles with George Sadler after he had just gotten out of the hospital from a car wreck. I got stripes all down the back of my legs from a peach tree switch, she just had to go to bed early. We lived side by side in my mothers rental cottage. She had a lovely home over by the ball park. I'm sure sorry I missed her, I have been looking for her for years. I found a letter long ago where she had been trying to get in touch with me and I didnt know how to find her.
