Thank you to her home caregivers: Andrea, Angela, Shalonna, and Theresa; Hospice, and family for all the loving care given over the past years.

Iva completed high school and went to Business School in Huntington, WV. She then went to work as a Key Punch Operator with the railroad. She married the love of her life, Jimmy, in 1945 and spent several years as a Homemaker raising their two sons. They moved to St. Petersburg in 1973, and after returning to the workplace she held positions as a Secretary, ending her career as the Administrative Assistant to the Fire Chief of the St. Petersburg Fire Department. She was a Pentecostal and member of Suncoast Cathedral church in St. Petersburg. Iva loved family gatherings, going shopping with the girls, attending evangelical conferences, and her competitive side came out when she bowled on her weekly league. She was a good listener, had a calm spirit, and always had kind words to say no matter what the circumstance. She will be greatly missed.

Aunt Iva Mae. Such a sweet and dear soul. My cherished memory was at the saddest event, Uncle Jimmy's funeral. I went to greet Aunt Iva Mae and sitting there so sweet and dear she said to me "I love you, Joy Beth" and I said to her "I love you too, Aunt Iva Mae". Many memories of visiting Aunt Zavala's Mae and Uncle Jimmy and sitting at the table having a cup of coffee and sandwich with Aunt Iva Mae. Aunt Iva Mae sent me the family genealogy of which will be passed to the kids.

Aunt Iva Mae was a lovely, caring and gentle woman and she will be dearly missed by all who knew and loved her. She was very sweet and kind and always made me feel welcome and cared for when I would visit her and Uncle Jimmy. I know that she is celebrating in glory as she is now with her late husband, Uncle Jimmy, and beloved son David Donald, whom preceded her in death. Sending thoughts of comfort and peace to cousin Alvin Donald, and all of her extended family. Rest in peace Aunt Iva Mae.
