Edna Mae Ducharme

JAN 23, 1926 - OCT 20, 2019

Edna Mae Ducharme, Mother, Grandmother, Great Grandmother, and Aunt, of which each had their special Place in her heart. Raising 6 children was her life and as the family moved from Washington D.C. to Garden Grove Ca, Moses Lake, Washington, Wichita, Kansas, Boise, Idaho and Northern Virginia, because of her husband, Leonard's job, she always made every place feel like home immediately. She had a very special loving nature, and a vibrant personality and never at a loss for words, whether it was with family, friends or strangers she had just met. Her knack of having never ending stories to share, will live in the hearts and memories of family and all those who were blessed to have heard them.

She was blessed to have been married to a loving husband who adored her and surely has his arms opened and smiling.

Please join the family for a Celebration of Life and Service for Edna Mae Ducharme on Saturday, October 26, 2019 at 11:30 am over at the St. Petersburg Yacht Club. Edna will be placed at Bay Pines at a later date.

Bettie Ramsey posted:

I basically lived between my home and Myra's until we got our first apartment. Leonard and Edna treated me like their 7th child and if Myra was punished, I was punished. Like the time we got in past our curfew and lied that the car wouldn't go into second gear (standard shift). Good ole Leonard was going to call the nice local police officer who helped us out. We were terrified. But sweet Edna (Mom) soothed things over. I will post a number of memories in the next couple of days. There are so many and all so sweet. Sorry I can't be there for the memorial but my heart will forever be filled with enormous love.
