I always enjoyed being in the company of Christos. The stories from his travels, the helpful professional insights, the political perspectives and the loving comments about his family always ensured a lively and lovely conversation. And the single most vivid memory that always makes me smile is when he and I danced in the isles during an Andre Rieu concert. Continue to dance Christos now with the angels. Besides the memories you live on in your wonderful daughters and the future generations. Judith

I was welcomed into Christos's family when my son, C. R., married his daughter, Denise. Christos was very outgoing and I enjoyed talking with him regarding his many travels, his life in Greece and his family. He was very dapper and he dressed accordingly. He told me many times that he loved my son as his own and, of course, he was so very proud of all of his children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren. I am thankful for the time I spent with him. Rest in peace, Chris. Jeanette Murtha

I helped care for Mr. Paramithas during his last 4 months on this earth. My impression of him was of a very polite, sweet, and loving person. He treated me so well when I was caring for him. I enjoyed his kindness and presence. He was very dear to me and I will miss him dearly. Of course he was human and had his weakness as we all do, but I can honestly say that he loved CHRIST, the Orthodox faith, and his family. May his memory be eternal and may The Lord Jesus Christ rest his soul among his angels and holy saints. Amen. Monica Xristidis.
