I will never forget the fishing and blue crabbing of th 80s. His determination to put us on the fish when I was young, was a pivotal point in my life. This trait is 2nd to his Tennessee hospitality(the Eppersons always took me in without judgement or questions) and punchline jokes that to this day, I use frequently. Like when I told an unbelievable story to him, And I quote" Your Ass Sucks Buttermilk" My wife tells me when I say this"no my ass does not suck buttermilk.
