Cheryl & my husband Paul worked together many years. After retirement, we began a tradition of getting together. In December, a grouper sandwich at The Hurricane Restaurant on St. Pete Beach. In April, lunch to celebrate Cheryl's birthday & mine. We will miss the visits, conversation & fun. Love, light & comfort to Cheryl's family.

My most amazing memory of Cheryl was when we took a trip together and all we did was laugh Cheryl was pretty good at throwing jokes at you, she could be quite funny. Most of all I miss her kindness how she loves her family. My heart is literally broken ❤️ you were a good friend to me. I know you're up in heaven looking down on us. I'm really going to miss you and our little talks every week ... You will be truly missed just remember I Will always Love you thank you so much for being such a good friend
