Our deepest sympathy on the passing of our friend. Fortunately, our memories are of many fun times together. His passing is still hard to swallow. No more beers or playing pool together. His soul will always have a place at our table.

Wayne will never be forgotten. He was full of life and always smiled. We may not have seen each other as much as we would have like to but every time we came to town, he met up with us like we never left. The memories will live on forever. Jackie, we have been friends for so many years, please know our thoughts and prayers are with you. We are always here if you need us. Love to you all. RIP Wayne. We love ya.
