Jeffrey Allen Johnston

NOV 23, 1966 - AUG 25, 2021

Jeffrey Allen Johnston, 54, passed away in St. Petersburg, Fl. on August 25, 2021. He was born in Winston-Salem, N.C., and was raised in East Bend; N.C., where he still has a large extended family. He graduated from Wingate University and Bowman Gray School of Medicine at Wake Forest University where he received a Master's in Biochemistry.

He was a professional beekeeper who rescued and relocated honeybees in the Tampa Bay area. His passion for honeybee conservation was immense. Because of his dedication and impact, he was beloved throughout the community. The hospice industry was near and dear to his heart, being involved in hospice software development, and a board member of Divine Hospice in Denver, Co. He loved cooking, grilling, and baking, and was always willing to lend a hand when asked. He was a cherished member of St. Paul's Catholic Church for nearly three decades and was a member of The Knights of Columbus. His legacy will live on through his family and the lives he touched.

He was preceded in death by his parents Johnny and Katie Johnston. He is survived by his wife of 31 years, Toni Rayanna (Victorio), two sons, Jerick Wilson, Brock Allen, and one daughter Emory Vittori Alexis Johnston.

As a parishioner of St Paul's I remember your family and how dashed dressed you were during mass. May God look over your family and may you rest in peace

Annette T. Smith lit a candle in honor of Jeffrey.

Knowing Jeff as a young boy and how proud his Mother and Father were of him. He is remembered then and now as a great person who gave back so much to his family and community. May the family and friends find comfort to know his memory will not be forgotten. My son Ian Leonard will always remember their time together.
