I spent many days/years meeting with Mary Ann while evaluating her patients for my specialty rehab center. She was always a kind, empathetic and professional woman. Surely you must all miss her very much - bonnie

Sending love and condolences to Mary Ann's family. I had the privilege of knowing Mary Ann for the past 9 years and she was so delightful to be around. She was so intelligent and was always up on the most recent news happenings, politics and loved her book club. But Mary Ann also had a wonderful playful side as well and was always a good sport in participating in therapy activities with Emily. She happily participated in many games of chase, throwing balls at targets, soccer games and dance parties! Mary Ann was a joy to know and was very loved!
