I have always known Tom as Bucky. Even though we didnt get to see each other very often, we talked often on the phone. He always seemed more like a brother than a brother-in-law, I know he had health issues, but never complained. all my family will really miss him.

My brother Paul has been with me since he was born and I am missing him already. These last few months were very har on him and seems like he never improved. Some day he seemed ok and others could hardly understand him. God is good and will restore him. Thank You Jesus.

It been long time since I have seen my grandfather, last time I remember I think I was just shy of a teenager. Lot of memories of seeing him through my childhood, but never really got to visit after that. (I know why). My condolences to all the family that was closest to him and my apologies if I never got to meet or remember who you are. I wasn't exactly the best of his grandchildren and for that I can't apologize enough for. I made my mistakes, but I know he forgave me for all of them. May God bless you all with comfort and peace.
