Frances Elizabeth Harper

OCT 5, 1943 - AUG 22, 2022

Frances Elizabeth (Lawson) Harper, 79, passed peacefully at her home surrounded by family on Monday, August 22, 2022.

She was born in St. Petersburg on Oct. 5th, 1943, the youngest daughter of the late Leo and Frances (Keller) Lawson. Frances was a graduate of Northeast High School, class of 61. She retired as an insurance adjuster after 30 years of service before becoming a hospital volunteer at two local hospitals with her best friend of 59 years, Karen DiNardo. She was a member of the Daughters of the American Revolution. Her hobbies included bowling, billiards, and coaching girls' softball. She enjoyed dancing and relaxing on the beach.

She is survived by her three daughters; Patricia Brightbill, Kathryn Douglas, and Jennifer Carpentieri; three grandchildren; Robby Sipes, Taylor Brightbill, and Montana Brightbill; three great-grandchildren; Michael Sipes, Kyla-Jo Birch, and Mila-Lee Sipes; her sister, Barbara Brown of Texas; her brother, Robert Lawson of Ohio; her friend, Jay Hingst of Arizona whom she has known since high school and brought much joy to her life.

Resting services will be held at Memorial Park Funeral, 5750 49th Street North, St. Petersburg, FL 33709 on Sept 10th, at 11:00 AM.

Melissa Purcell lit a candle in honor of Frances.

I love you so much! Miss you already and will forever! You were like a mom to me and I appreciate that so much! Such a wonderful, beautiful and caring person ❤️. I promise that I will make sure to always be here for Jennifer. Thank you again for letting me and my girls be a part of your beautiful life. I will forever cherish the Christmas novelties that you gave to us a few years back. Love you mom, rest in paradise beautiful.
