Sandra "Sandy" Lorenz

OCT 25, 1948 - NOV 5, 2022

On Saturday, November 5, Sandra Lorenz (Sandy), a beloved wife and mother of two boys, passed away at the age of 74. Sandy was born in Tennessee but moved to Florida in the mid 70's. Sandy spent 24 years as an apartment manager. She loved communicating with people and won many sales awards during her tenure. Sandy loved the warm weather and beaches that Florida offered. She moved to Miami from Tennessee and then relocated to Orlando but she spent the last 30 years in the Tampa Bay area.

Sandy was married to her husband Russ, for over 36 years and was a very proud mother of two boys, Gino and Jeremy. She also has a grandson, Jaylen, that lit up her life. Sandy loved to travel and planned many family vacations. She enjoyed listening to smooth jazz and traveled to many jazz events. She was a good friend to many and will be dearly missed by all.

There are no public services planned at this time.

Sandy, I'll always will remember you with a big smile and great conversation. Thank you for your kindness and for always being a joy to be around. One of my fondest memories I have, is from the Halloween party at Karen's house, where you and Russ dressed up as "Driving Mrs. Daisy". We had so much fun. May you Rest In Peace sweet lady. Until we meet again. Love, your friend Eva

Lonny and I send our deepest condolences to the Lorenz family on the passing of Sandy. Sandy & I were close friends for many years. I will miss my best friend immensely and forever. Sandy was a beautiful person and friend to many with her humor, wisdom and good advice. Sandy's dream was to marry and have children and grandchildren. Sandy found all of that with Russ, Gino, Jeremy & Jaylen. RIP my friend, always. Joan Craven
