Ann Hutchens posted:

Paula was my daughter-in-law. When I first met her I was struck by her youthful energy and passion for justice. We were proud to stand up with her as she graduated from USF. In all she did following graduated she sought to serve those who had suffered great losses. One of my best memories is when Paula was given a flying pig - proving that pigs can and do fly. I remember her huge laugh. Paula showed us how to be more human through serving and playing.
