Sending my deepest condolences to Linda and her family. I grew up next door to Linda, so I met Jimmy when she first started dating him. I knew then he was a keeper. He was always kind and smiling...very personable. I have very fond memories of him as well. May Jimmy RIP and may his memories be a blessing to all. 🙏🌟

Jim and I shared the July 1st birthday. When I was a kid, I always felt that made us special. As I grew up and over the years since, whenever Jim would see me, he always started with a kiss on the cheek and a "Hello Sweetie". Without fail, he always asked how everyone in my family was doing. Jim had a pure heart of gold. Just seeing him, made me smile. The world could use more Jim's. Thank you for the memories. Love always, Michelle McFarland-Paden
