My deepest sympathy to the Kurus family. You have lost a strong force, but she will always be with you. I remember many talks with Sherri on so many different topics. She always made me smile and completely crack up with some of the things she would say. Rest easy now, Sherri

Grandma, you were the only person in this world that was allowed to call me Jessie. I am so glad we got you for as long as we did. Your bright blue eyes and mega-watt smile are what I am going to miss most, I think.
