Linda Ann Homan passed away on Friday, March 24, 2023. Linda was 67 years old. Linda was born July 15, 1955, in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. Linda was the only daughter of the late Robert and Madalyn Homan.

Linda was a devoted mother, sister, aunt, and friend. She loved to go to amusement parks, such as Disney and Busch Gardens. She enjoyed going to concerts and traveling to Pennsylvania. Her free time would be spent on her phone chatting with family and friends or playing games. Other things she loved were Betty Boop, cats, and her dog Olivia.

In addition to her late parents, she is survived by her daughter Anastasia Homan, her brother Robert J. Homan, her niece Lisa D. Kellogg (Jeffery), her nephew Robert S. Homan, and her great-nieces Aliyah and Amaya Kellogg. She is preceded in death by her sister-in-law Joyce Homan.

Linda will have a Celebration of Life at a later date in Florida and Pennsylvania.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions in Linda's memory may be made to the American Kidney Fund.

Lin and I worked at Walmart Supercenter in 2009-2010 and we became great friends and still remained great friends after we both left there! Lin was the sweetest kindest most good hearted person I have ever met. She was a wonderful and proud mother to her daughter Anastasia. I really miss talking to Lin and listening to her contagious laugh. Rest In Peace Lin 🙏 I Love ❤️ you and really miss you. Until we see each other again. 😊😄❤️🙏

I will miss you Linda! I have known you over half my life and have watched Stasia grow up. You did such a good job with the job you loved the most, being a mom. I will miss you my sweet friend and always caring about what I was up to and how I was doing. I pray that you are able to rest in comfort. I love you.

I met Linnie (as I called her) when we worked together at Walmart many years ago. She joked around with everyone and I remember her laughing a lot. She always talked about her daughter and I know she loved her so much. Although I haven't seen her in a few years I will miss seeing her post on Facebook. Deepest condolences to the family. I know she will always watch over you. RIP Linnie ❤️

This is so hard! Linny and I worked together at Walmart from 2007- I can't remember when she left for health reasons but we still kept in touch! She was my Olive Garden buddy! I moved back to New Hampshire in 2013 but I still stayed in touch through Facebook! She was the sweet person I met! She would share all her daughters accomplishments with so much love and pride I knew she would grow up to be a strong woman just like her mom! I know she will be missed by and myself! I know in my heart she will forever live in our heart! Much love ❤️

Linda is deeply missed.. we grew up in the same neighborhood.. ..friends since childhood.. same schools.. we did not get to always see each other through the years or talk.. but when we did it was as if time stood still..She was so loving and caring and very comforting to me after my husband died.. she loved her family so much.. .. her fur babies.. her friends.. so proud of her daughter and all she did.. such love there as she spoke of her.. she had many medical issues.. but you might never know that as she did not talk about herself so much.. but looked outward at others.. she had a great attitude to everything and outlook and enjoyed life as she could.. I will miss talking to her so much.. Blessings to her family.. Thank you Linda for your love and caring..❤️

Lynn was my extra older sister growing up, she was as big of a pain as both my other sisters, but she was always there when as a kid I needed her. My favorite memories will always be her and her bff (Debbie Frannecki) my sister coloring their hair with markers, or the private joke we shared about the golden arches. She will be missed by those who actually really new her, my heart is with her daughter, the LOVE of her life..... Walk with the clouds Lynn for you can always visit me now..... Love and Light Lav
