I can still hear you calling me... "Granny!" at work, and I would answer, "What Grandpa?!" I can honestly say that you were one of the best, most caring coworkers I've ever had the privilege to work with. All the customers loved you because you truly cared. I am heartbroken that you left us, but I know you were tired. You certainly fought the good fight. Rest in eternal peace.

Dad, I will love you forever. I will never forget you. You live on in all of us in so many ways. You taught us all to always have fun in anything we do from the crazy hats you would try on to throwing trays in the trash. You helped so many people with your work. You are such a special person. Thank you for always loving me. Love always Nick
