The music spoke to him and inspired his own creative moves. His passion for dance not only brought him immense happiness but also brightened the lives of those around him.

Robert was known for his quick wit and delightful sense of humor. He had a gentle, even temper and an enduring kindness that endeared him to all who were fortunate enough to know him.

His memory will continue to live on in the hearts of his family and friends. Though he is no longer with us, his legacy of love, laughter, and dance will forever be a cherished part of our lives.
