Jerry Haire

OCT 20, 1958 - NOV 19, 2023

In Loving Memory of Jerry Fred Haire (10/20/1958 - 11/19/2023)

Jerry Fred Haire, 65, passed away on Sunday, November 19, 2023 at home in St Petersburg, FL.

Born in Memphis, Tennessee, Jerry's journey led him to his cherished life in St. Petersburg, Florida. A man of limitless energy, passion, and resilience, Jerry carved an extraordinary path, leaving an indelible mark through successful ventures like Charlie's Oyster Palace, Carlie's Bar & Grill, Carlie's II, and the founding of The Landmark Company in 1980—a testament to his entrepreneurial spirit.

A beacon of strength and inspiration, Jerry's legacy extends far beyond his professional achievements. As a father of three, grandfather of nine, and friend to hundreds, Jerry's impact was immeasurable. He was a hero to those who knew him intimately, and his life was anchored in principles such as "If you don't have enough; you're not helping enough people" and "Leave people better than how you found them."

Jerry is survived by his son Justin, daughter-in-law Kerri, and their six children—Emerson, Trevor, Lachlan, Kelsey, Sloan, and Rowan—of Seminole, FL; his daughter Kimberly, son-in-law Andrew, and their three children—Olivia, Elizabeth, and Anna—of Evanston, IL; and his daughter Kendall, of St. Petersburg, FL. He is preceded in death by his mother, Elizabeth Bowling Lowe, his father Fred V Haire, and his sister Cynthia Elizabeth Haire.

A man of jovial spirit, Jerry will be remembered for his deep love for music, insatiable curiosity for life, and vibrant social nature. His life, a rich tapestry woven with threads of adventure, laughter, and camaraderie, will be missed eternally, leaving behind a void that can never be filled. His enduring legacy is the love and connection he fostered, as he was endeared and loved by countless individuals. While we mourn his physical absence, we find comfort in knowing that his spirit will live on within us forever. Rest in peace, JerBear. Until we meet again.

Jerry was family to me and I hope he knew that. Not only was he a dependable friend full of wisdom with a bit of humor, but also somewhat of a mentor. I'm so grateful for the time we spent together and the lessons he taught me. Such a talent for storytelling too. I think about him always and I truly miss him.

Jerry was the closest thing I ever had to a brother. We grew up in Memphis until around the age 10 and Jerry and his mother moved to St Pete Florida. Our family would visit on vacation over the last 50 years almost every year if to see these relatives. The world lost a very interesting person in Jerry Fred Haire, a person that had more friends than you could count. A jovial and very socially active person who in his prime probably knew most of the people in St Pete with his real estate business and all the bar business through the years. It was always refreshing to talk to Jerry and to hear his jovial voice. My wife Rose and I wish the family love and sympathy for thier/our loss. My next opportunity I'll have Jerry's favorite beer Heineken and have a toast to all the good times with Jerbear! Wes Prewett, Jerry's cousin.
