We have known Linda and Martin for many years. We use to joke with Linda that Martin should ask our daughter for a date, and to our surprise, they were already dating. Martin was loyal, hardworking, caring, a great father and a supportive son and grandson. A few weeks ago, we were visiting Linda and Martin was there. He was very interested in learning about our travels, especially to the Grand Canyon and Machu Picchu. He was very happy and was looking forward to grilling us steaks. We were in shock just a few days later to learn of his passing. Our prayers and thoughts are with Linda, his son Martin, Jr., and the rest of his family.
