Karen Haynes McCafferty

MAR 11, 1943 - DEC 20, 2023

Karen Haynes McCafferty, 80, of St. Petersburg, Florida sadly passed away on December 20, 2023. Born on March 11, 1943 in Cleveland, Ohio, Karen was a loving wife, mother, and grandmother who dedicated her life to the service of others. She was a faithful follower of Jesus and dedicated many years to teaching Bible Study. She also loved art and created stained glass; she created hundreds of pieces for friends and family alike, and she became known for the stained glass crosses that she would make for families who had lost a loved one, as a symbol of hope and comfort in their time of grieving. Karen always had an open ear and a helping hand.

Karen is preceded in death by her parents, as well as her husband Richard Haynes. She is survived by her long time best friend and husband, David McCafferty, her daughters Kim Russell and Kristi Campbell, sons-in-law Allen Russell and Jon Campbell; grandchildren Michael, Lane, and Christopher Russell; and her sister, Barbara Mariner. Karen will be dearly missed and always remembered by those who love her.

We went to Florida Bible College in Miami with Karen, Dick & Dave in the early to mid 60's. We stopped by her house many years ago in St. Pete and remember the visit very well. Dick wasn't home at the time, but had a nice visit with Karen. We have been on Facebook with Karen for quite a while and enjoyed our conversations. Our hearts go out to Dave & the family. She will be greatly missed. Fortunately, we will all be together and enjoy fellowshipping once again. We enjoyed & were blessed by watching her service through streaming. Bill & Sandi Leitch

Though Karen did not lead me to know Jesus, she was instrumental in teaching me what it meant to really have a personal relationship with Christ. I was only 13- but even to the end , her faithfulness to The Lord in serving others and sharing the gospel, and praying for me was such an encouragement! I'm certain she is "more alive now than she ever was on earth"! What a celebration and reunion we will have one day! Forever in my heart. Judy McTaggart (Rodriguez)

Karen and I go back to high school and have shared countless memories. What a kind and thoughtful friend she was to so many who received her beautiful stained glass pieces, myself included. Because she trusted Jesus as her Savior, I know she is with Him now but knowing she is no longer on this planet has left a hole in my heart. This is just a temporary goodbye sweet forever friend. It won't be long until we're all reunited for eternity. What a reunion that will be! Kathy Nofal

My family was a recipient of several of Karen's stained-glass crosses, and she blessed me with a beautiful stained-glass dragonfly. What a huge heart of compassionate kindness Karen displayed to many going through grief and loss. Yes, her amazing presence on the planet is so missed. She was truly an unforgettable human being. ❤️

Karen was my beautiful wife that I loved her dearly. We met 60 years ago in college. Little did I know that we would become precious soul mates in the future. She created beautiful stained-glass art and more than 500 stained glass crosses for people that lost loved ones. Karen loved to teach the Bible and council people that needed discernment and wisdom in the Holy scriptures. She helped me to mature spiritually and always encouraged me with love and understanding. Our citizenship is in heaven and there is going to be a great celebration when we are reunited in glory. David McCafferty
