Fly away home my dear sweet Momma. The chain is now broken as well as our hearts. You were the matriarch of our family. Holding us all together like glue. The peace keeper. Thank you for always being there. For your prayers, and for instilling in us the faith in our Lord to help us through all that life can and will throw our way. I will forever miss your laughter and our special times together that only a mother and daughter can share. Rest in peace now sweet Momma. You will forever be in my heart. Lynn ❤️❤️❤️

You have enriched our lives in so many ways Grammy, I could go on and on of all of the wonderful memories we've shared and the love you have for our family. I know that parents gave us life, but our grandparents give us a sense of who we are and where we came from. Richy and I will never forget that, and I will ensure your love continues to embrace your great grand babies. I love you gram.

The Good Lord has brought you home but you will never really be gone. Mom you were always our guiding light and strength. You were the one we all ran to for comfort and protection no matter what the problem may have been. Your smile, warmth and love was more than any son could ask for. I thank God I was so blessed with a mother like you. Your support in all my endeavors never went unnoticed. I will miss you always. I await the day I can see you again in Heaven. Love you momDan

No more pain and suffering.. Grandma Donnie is smiling down from heaven, still watching over her family, who means so much to her. She enjoyed her life and was fully engaged and smiling even up to the end. That's the memory I will cherish. So glad I got to see her again recently. We love you and miss you ❤️
