James Jerome Jackson

JUL 20, 1951 - FEB 9, 2024

James Jerome Jackson was born in St. Petersburg, FL to the late Willie and Catherine Jackson. He later moved to Garner, NC and resided there for 16 years. He moved back to his home in St. Petersburg and resided there until he passed away. He converted at an early age to the Bethel AME Church where he served as an Usher and Member of the Choir. Jerome was known for his sweet spirit and his humble demeanor. He was preceded in death by his parents, Willie and Catherine Jackson; brothers, Harold Jackson, Terrell Jackson, and Charels Jackson; and grandmother, Mozelle Love. He is survived by sisters, Rev. Jacqueline Brooks and Rev. Juanita Cox; and brother-in-law, Rev. Roger Brooks. Death is the final crossover to ETERNAL LIFE.
