Beatrice McArthur

JAN 1, 1942 - MAR 16, 2024

Beatrice McArthur January 1, 1942 - March 16, 2024

Born in Glasgow, Scotland, Beatrice came to the United States when she was 19 years old and settled in Connecticut.

A wonderful loving Mother, Wife, Sister, Grandmother, Great grandmother, Aunt & friend.
A very special person to her family & all who knew her.

Surviving a serious car accident in 1966 led to a career as an RN and thereafter entered one of the first Physician Assistant programs, where she qualified as a P. A.

Her career was her passion, she was not only dedicated to her patients, they were family to her. Her extensive career started in New Haven, Connecticut, in the very late 60s at St. Raphael's. Then on to Yale in 1970 and worked in Plastic surgery and cardio thoracic. From 1977- 1980 she moved to Mississippi and worked for a community health project. 1980- 1983 she moved to Charleston, South Carolina, also working for a community health project.

In 1983, she moved to Maryland and worked in the V.A in D.C. specializing in Renal Dialysis & Transplants. She ran her own clinics, giving every patient her undivided attention and care and fought to make sure that got the best of care.

In the last years of her career she moved to Saint Petersburg, Florida, and worked in the VA in Tampa and retired from there.

Her other passions were her dogs and her books, she loved to read and loved to research .

I quote from one of her good friends is as follows:

Obituary

Beatrice McArthur

JAN 1, 1942 - MAR 16, 2024

"I'm not gonna lie, I sort of thought her invincible. I didn't think any person or illness had the guts to take her on and I sure didn't take any of them had the power to beat her. She was certainly one of a kind and she will be missed. She will never, not ever be forgotten!"

She is dearly loved by all her family & friends. She will be missed by everyone. She touched a lot of lives. Gone but never forgotten. Amen

Services are pending at this time.

Some of my fondest memories of growing up were being fortunate enough to visit my aunt Beatrice in Florida. She was always so welcoming to us – taking us out for meals, showing us around the town, looking after us and welcoming us into her home. She loved when we visited, and we were never made to feel as though we were imposing. As a teenager and beyond, I remember silently admiring the life that Beatrice had built for herself. A 19-year-old moving from Glasgow to the states in this day and age is almost unheard of, but to make that move over 60 years ago is almost unthinkable. No phones, no internet, it's a wonder that people even knew anything about America back then. That just shows the type of person she was – brave, courageous, adventurous and living life to the full. Everything that she had in her life, she worked tirelessly to earn it. She had an infectious personality; always smiling, joking and laughing. She was always the life and soul of the party, whilst looking after everybody else at the same time. Despite being over 4,000 miles away, she never forgot her roots and her family were always more important to her than anything else. You will never be forgotten, god bless you aunt Beatrice and thanks for everything you ever did for us. Rest easy x

My sister Beatrice lived a brave life and died a brave death, fighting until the very end. She didn't suffer fools gladly but would make an exception if you were a relative. Beatrice was a proud Scot who never forgot her roots. She would often introduce me by saying "This is my wee brother, I used to change his nappies" My wife Eleanor and I, along with our three sons, Tony, Paul, and Gary, spent many happy holidays with her in Florida. Holidays that may never have been possible without her accommodating us, lending me her car, and throwing in the odd theme park pass. We all love and miss you dearly. See you later, big sister xxxxx

Bea and I have been friends for many years so I have many lovely memories of her and the time we spent together. She is one of the kindest, smartest people you could ever meet but get on the wrong side of her and she'll let you know it. I used to often spend the night at her house on a Friday night and we'd have dinner and a few drinks. We'd laugh, dance and talk into the "wee hrs". I used to tell her the old cliché, "When you go the world will be a duller place without you". She would laugh at that. Now it's that time, she's gone but will never be forgotten and, the world is duller already. It's even reflected in the weather as it's dull and rainy today. She is now in heaven with the Lord, may she RIP. She is sadly missed.
