Obituary for Michael H. Collin (July 16, 1943 – March 18, 2024)

St. Petersburg, Florida lost a beloved soul on March 18, 2024, as Michael H. Collin peacefully departed this world. Born on July 16, 1943, he spent his entire life in the city he loved.

Michael was more than just a florist; he was a gentle and kind spirit who touched the hearts of everyone he encountered. His sweet and loving nature endeared him to all, leaving an indelible mark on the community. In the 1960s, he followed his passion for flowers, venturing into orchid growing. His dedication and expertise led him to become a master Orchidologist, cultivating these delicate blooms with unmatched care and skill.

As a faithful and senior member of the Tampa Bay Orchid Society, Michael shared his knowledge generously, fostering a love for orchids among fellow enthusiasts. His legacy lives on through the vibrant blooms he nurtured at Michael Collin Orchids.

In accordance with his wishes, Michael has been cremated, and no formal ceremony is planned. Let us remember him with fondness, celebrating a life well-lived and a heart that bloomed like the orchids he cherished.

May his gentle spirit continue to inspire us all. Rest in peace, dear Michael.

As a member of Tampa Bay Orchid Society, we learned of his passing just recently. Michael was a quiet soul and was always happy to talk orchids with the members. We missed him in recent years as his health deteriorated. Now there is one more expert gardener to tend the greenhouse in the great beyond.
