Brenda Faye Hiltz

SEP 17, 1951 - MAR 27, 2024

Brenda Faye Hiltz (Roberts) of Kenneth City, Florida, passed away March 27th, 2024, at home with her beloved husband by her side.

Brenda Faye Hiltz (Roberts) was born in Fulton, Kentucky, to Dee and Rosie Roberts on September 17, 1951. She had five siblings Joe (PJ) Roberts and Sue (Randy) Bumgardner and is preceded in death by Shirley Roberts, Diana (James) Steele and Dee Dee (Scott) McDowell. She was a graduate of Fulton High School, class of 1969, and married her husband, Bruce Hiltz soon after in 1971.

She obtained her Practical nursing license and was a nurse for many years. She then became a franchise owner of Merry Maids cleaning services in Farmington Hills, MI and later owned and operated Small Office Cleaning Services (SOCS). In 2008 she furthered her education and received her associate degree in marketing and applied management from Schoolcraft College.

In retirement, she volunteered at Northside Baptist Church Food Bank while enjoying the sunshine and warm weather of Florida alongside the love of her life Bruce Hiltz. Bruce and Brenda's most cherished memories are those aboard the many cruises they enjoyed together throughout the years.

She leaves behind her beloved family: husband of 52 years, Bruce Hiltz, three children, Stacey (James) Kaminski of Manton, MI, Jason (Becky) of Waterford, MI, Bradley (Anne) of Hampton, VA. Six grandchildren Aislynn, Raven, Madelyn, Julien, Jaxson, Preston and one great grandson Zenix. She also leaves behind her beloved fur baby Bo and many dear friends including her dearest old friend, Joyce Edmaiston.

Informal Celebration of Life will be held May 18, 2024, 1pm-3pm at Willow Lake Clubhouse 6400 46th Ave North, Kenneth City FL

In lieu of flowers, the family has asked for donations be made to Northside Baptist Church Food Bank 6000 38th ave N, St Petersburg FL.
