Patricia Ann Trope

MAY 9, 1939 - MAR 31, 2024

Patricia Ann Trope, 84, of Pinellas Park, Florida, passed away on March 31, 2024. She was born on May 9, 1939, in Tulare, California, to the late Ercie Murray and Beatrice Perry.

Patricia was a beloved mother, daughter, and friend who will be deeply missed by all who knew her. She was an outgoing person and was known as someone who always took others under her wing. Patricia always kept a positive outlook on life and never complained about her health.

Patricia cherished her family and friends, as well as her faith in Jesus. In her early years of raising a family, she was actively involved in the PTA and Girl Scouts, as well as sewing clothing for her children. Patricia's passion for sewing led her to start her own sewing and upholstery business after her children had grown.

She is survived by her children, Elizabeth (Anthony) Pace, Sandra (James) Degen, John (Dee) Trope, and Suzanne Trope, as well as 10 grandchildren, 10 great-grandchildren, and her sister Janine (John) Miller. Patricia was preceded in death by her mother Beatrice (Paul) Perry, father Ercie Murray, and brother Lawrence Murray.

Patricia touched so many lives and will be remembered for her adventurous spirit, creativity, and passion for life. May her soul rest in eternal peace, and may her memory live on in the hearts of all who knew and loved her.

So sorry to hear the news of Mrs. Trope passing. She and my mom were friends through PTA and then because I became childhood friends with her daughter Sandy. Many a day/night was spent at the Trope house. Great memories of her in Fox Lake. Sincere condolences to the entire family and her friends. Really nice lady....God got an angel for sure.
