I have such fond memories of visiting my Aunt Carolyn and Uncle Jay in Nashville. It was almost a right of passage to see the family at least every other year. I had the honor of being a flower girl at their wedding, and remember the heat and humidity didn't affect my aunt in the least. Calm, cool and collected were the attributes she possessed while the rest of us were ready to pass out in the heat. whThroughout my life Aunt Carolyn was a source of confidence, support, encouragement and solice. She had kind words for me when I needed them the most. I'll miss our conversations across the miles and her gentle laugh. Strong yet mighty, Rest in Peace, dear Aunt. Condolences to my three Cousins, Karn, Brian and Karen. Love to you all.
