Lynda Womer posted:

My sincere condolences are sent to Dean and the Frock Family. Having met Judi 40 year ago as a coworker and friend at St. Petersburg College, we shared many fun times both at work and beyond. In the early years we took a cruise together. Throughout the years she was present for my kids' birthdays and life events. She was known for her problem-solving abilities on work issues. But she was also known for her love of ducks which began many years ago when she was seen knee-deep in the pond on campus rescuing baby ducks from their many predators. She raised many of them by hand with the help of Dean. They were their children. She will be missed for her quick wit and willingness to always lend a helping hand. Gone too soon.
