Belinda C. Keller

NOV 20, 1959 - APR 30, 2025

Belinda Keller passed away on April 30, 2025, in St. Petersburg, Florida. Born November 20, 1959, in the coastal town of Southport, North Carolina, her life was shaped by the steady rhythm of the tides and the warmth of Southern skies.

She was the beloved daughter of the late Charles and Carolyn Keller. Her memory is held dearly by her devoted daughter Carol Boergers and son-in-law Ryan Boergers, and lives on brightly through her cherished grandchild Charlee Boergers. She is also lovingly remembered by her siblings Luke Keller, Mark Keller, and Anna Otto.

Many dear friends carry her spirit within them still. Belinda embraced the world with a generous heart and an adventurous soul. Whether casting a line beneath open skies or guiding a horse through a western style show ring, she moved through life with quiet determination and joy.

Her love for animals and nature's calm offered her both companionship and inspiration. At home, Belinda found peace in the intricate art of diamond painting—each gem placed with patience, forming luminous works that reflected her creativity and care. These gentle acts of creation balanced the vivid energy that defined so much of her spirit.

A memorial service will be announced later to allow family and friends in North Carolina to gather in remembrance. Belinda's light touched many hearts. May her memory bring comfort to all who knew and loved her.

My heart goes out to Belinda's family and especially her siblings, daughter and granddaughter. Belinda was just slightly older than me and though I remember many summer nights in a rented beach house with Aunt Carolyn and Uncle Charles and my parents and others playing canasta while the kids ran wild up and down the beach. I remember Belinda's smile most of all. I wish her peace now and rest and God's speed to where there are no more tears or hurt.
