Sheila Kay Walch

FEB 23, 1962 - JUN 27, 2025

Sheila Kay Walch, a faithful wife, proud mother, and deeply loving Memaw, passed away suddenly on June 27, 2025, in Kenneth City, Florida at the age of 63.

Born on February 23, 1962, Sheila lived a life full of heart, humor, and generosity. She brought a warm, wholesome, and vibrant light into every room she entered. If Sheila knew you, she considered you a friend—and treated you like family from that moment on. Her wild and free spirit, contagious laughter, and fierce love for those around her will be remembered always (along with her habit of occasionally burning the bread).

She is survived by her beloved husband, Timothy; her daughter, Taylor; her stepsons, Adam and Tim; her treasured eight grandchildren; her brother, Greg; her sister, Tammy; and over a dozen nieces and nephews who adored her.

The loss of Sheila will be felt deeply by many, for a very long time. Her warmth, her love, and her laughter made the world a better place, and her memory will continue to do so.

I will always remember the night Aunt Sheila brought me, my cousin(her daughter), and my sister to a drive in movie. She had put a bunch of snacks, pillows and blankets in the back of her car and we all went out. I don't even remember the movie, I just remember feeling so happy to be there with everyone.
