Robin Elder

FEB 7, 1954 - JUL 3, 2025

Robin Elder, 71, of Largo, Florida, passed away peacefully on July 3, 2025.

Born in Boston, Massachusetts, on February 7, 1954, Robin brought creativity, warmth, and kindness into the world from the very beginning. She found joy in family, friends and loved her hobbies — especially sewing and embroidery, where she poured love into every creation. She was also devoted to her beloved toy fox terriers, who brought her endless happiness over the years.

Robin married the love of her life, Ken, on December 29, 1974, and together they shared a beautiful 50-year journey filled with love, laughter, and enduring partnership. Her greatest joy was her family, and she was a devoted wife and proud mother to their two sons, Thomas and Michael. She also held a special place in her heart for her nephew Stephen, who was like a son to her.

Robin will be remembered for her spirit, her creativity, and the deep love she gave to those fortunate enough to know her. Her presence made the world softer and kinder.

She is survived by her husband Ken, sons Thomas and Michael, and nephew Stephen.

A private family gathering will be held to honor Robin's life. In lieu of flowers, the family kindly requests donations be made to the American Heart Association in Robin's memory.

Robin's love, grace, and warmth will remain forever in the hearts of those who loved her.

Robin found the good in everyone. This cannot be said in most people. God put Robin and Ken together knowing she would be the perfect wife for ken and visa-versa. She will be missed but remain in our hearts forever.Rudy & Dolly Masi

Robin was my BFF for 30 years more or less. We traveled to sewing events together, both near and far. If we happened to make a wrong turn, we were off on an excellent adventure.We got together for lunch as often as possible. Both of us loved all kinds of food. Our LOLs, ladies of lunch, will miss our sweet, kind, generous friend.
