In Loving Memory of Jaryd James Buckowski

Jaryd James Buckowski, 26 years old

Born on 11/24/98 in Reno Nevada. Passed away on 7/15/25 in Seminole Florida.

Jaryd had a light about him that was undeniable. It wasn't just in his smile or the warmth of his embrace, but in the way he carried himself — like the first rays of the rising sun, steadily and quietly bringing light to everyone around him. His eyes sparkled with the same intensity and hope that the rising sun holds, reflecting the strength and beauty of his spirit. Those who knew him were drawn to that warmth, feeling instant comfort whenever they were near him.

Jaryd's love for life was as boundless as his curiosity. He had a deep respect for Japanese culture, especially the art and precision behind the craftsmanship of things like the rotary engine. It was as if Jaryd, too, was built with a similar kind of precision — he knew how to fix things, make them work, and bring out their fullest potential, much like his prized Milwaukee tools. Whether it was a mechanical problem or a personal one, Jaryd had the charm and skill to make things run smoothly again, always bringing people together with his knowledge, his laughter, and his unwavering support.

He was a man of passion — passionate about his craft, about people, and about life itself. He cherished the quiet moments, the late-night talks, and the way the world seemed to open up when you took the time to really understand it. His friends and family will forever remember his smile, laughter, the way he walked, generosity, love for music, driving anywhere, his desire for a juicy steak and creating gifts from his heart for the people he loved.

He waged a quiet war within, longing to be free from pain, from sorrow and from the weight unseen. Always reaching for peace, always seeking the light. Now he rests, his soul unburdened, and we find solace knowing he has finally found the peace he so fiercely sought and deeply deserved.

Jaryd is survived by Karen Hangge and James Buckowski, stepfather Tim Hangge, stepmother Cindy, sisters Kieley and Kalena, stepsisters Alex and Stephanie, his son James, grandparents, and countless friends and family who were blessed to have shared in his journey.

A celebration of life will be held on 8/15/25 at 11 am at Memorial Park Funeral home (5750 49th St North St Petersburg FL 33709). There will be a public visitation for 10 to 11 am. We invite all who knew and loved Jaryd to join us in celebrating his extraordinary life.

Though this loss is devastating, we choose to carry Jaryd's light forward, much like the ever-rising sun. His kindness, his mechanical genius, his charm, and his love will continue to shine through each of us. We find strength in living with the same generosity and heart that he did every day.

In honor of Jaryd's memory, and to help raise awareness about the ongoing battle against fentanyl, donations can be made to Fentanyl Fathers. Your support will help spread awareness, provide aid to those impacted, and continue the fight against this devastating epidemic.

Jaryd's light will never be forgotten. His memory will live on in the hearts of all who knew him. His legacy, like the perfect precision of a well-crafted engine, will continue to move us forward, one thoughtful, loving step at a time. He will be missed beyond words – his love endures.

I didn't speak at Jaryd's service, but if I did I would have said this. My favorite memory of Jaryd is the evening I became Bonus Mom, and he became Bonus Son. We were sitting on the back porch talking for hours one night in front of a fire. I told him how I regret the way things were between him and I when he lived with us that first time. Things happened that scared me and I didn't handle it well. He told me he knew and never held it against me. Once I had more understanding I was able to do better the next few times but still, that first time always stayed with me and I felt really bad. He then told me what it's like for him to live with addiction and some of the things he has been through because of it. A lot of it broke my heart. Before we finally put the fire out and said goodnight was when we declared each other Bonus Mom and Bonus Son. We even put that in our phone contact names. Apparently that makes it official. I will forever be grateful for that evening. After that I would have spoken about a few other memories. Like how it was never unusual to find him on my roof or high in a tree. Whenever he was here there were usually steaks grilled, fires, and marshmallows. Jaryd could always make my marshmallows perfectly. I might have told about how a few months ago, I walked out my back door to see Jaryd standing on the fence sawing down tree branches. I am not sure how he even got up there without a ladder. I wanted to tell him to come down immediately, but he was clearly enjoying himself. I would definitely have told about Jaryd's special way with dogs. He loved Pecklepoo a lot. Later on he bonded with our dog Sarah. Nobody else existed for her when he was at the house. I think everyone learned about his talents, mechanical abilities, how he was always thankful, helpful, kind, and always ready for a hug. But one thing I will mention is that look of pride and accomplishment whenever he fixed something on one of our car. I loved that satisfied look. I hope his spirit felt all the love for him at his service. Rest in peace my Bonus Son.

Please accept our deepest sympathies. I only met Jaryd once, when he and his father came to see my aunt who was passing. Although it was a short visit, having him take the time really stood out to me. Wishing you kindness and gentleness as you grieve. This is a memory from my husband Steve. Jared worked for Steve at LKQ. Steve always said he was the youngest employee he ever had--and he could tell. He'll never forget him zipping into the parking lot in his RX7 trying not to be late. As soon as he walked in, Steve's greeting was always the same: 'Get your hair out of your eyes and pull up your pants" . Jared would flash that goofy, funny laugh, say "ok Steve" and swing his hair to the side/ and back. He said he was so much fun to work with and always great with the customers. He loved tinkering with his cars and we will always remember him with a smile. Love Paulette and Steve

You're here, Like the time you touched my face, And promise you always would be, My biggest fear. That hand will disappear, And you'll be gone, Like sunshine in the dark, Swallowed in the night, The dark falls and consumes, It convinces, it grooms. It takes you away, And i'm left with the echoes Of words you used to say, But i know the heart underneath the pain. It has hope, and so do I, That one day, the dark will leave the sky, I see your sunshine through the dark, It's stark, It warms me still, i know you're there, somewhere. Today, tomorrow, forever.

So many different photos to choose from, so many memories I could share. Jaryd was the sweetest soul I've ever met. Jaryd was the type to give you his shirt off his back but never ask for anything in return. He loved his family and I was lucky enough to be family to him. I loved him more than anything and the past 10 years will always be in my heart. Thank you for always loving me and being my best friend. My heart will forever be broken. The only peace is knowing you are now at peace as well. I will never get use to a world without you. Music, driving, working on cars and venting about life will never be the same without you. I will forever be your sebby ❤️ thank you for making me a mother and being my best friend. I feel it's only right to post your favorite picture of us. I will forever wish I could have taken all the weight and put it on myself. I will carry you with me forever.

THIS is true love. Jaryd loved you so much Jordan, more than any other young woman on this planet. You were soulmates from the start... there was a time that you and him were apart but destiny brought you both back together as you were always meant to be. His last days were spent being loved and cherished by you. He knows you loved him more than anything. And he's watching you from above. ❤️

During his middle and high school years, Jaryd was like a second son to me. My son, Zach, met Jaryd through my sister Cindy, who he called his "Bonus Mom." Jaryd and Zach were the best of friends during that time. They were always on their bikes. You could find them just about anywhere in Seminole or at the beach. When they started driving, they spent countless hours fixing their cars and getting into more shenanigans than I probably want to know about. Jaryd was always welcome at my home. He was so kind, and never left without a hug and a thank you. These pictures are of the boys growing up together. Much love and peace to you, Jaryd. Love, "Aunt" Robyn.

There's too many good memories with Jaryd to put in one line, he was an amazing musician, BMXer, adventurer, engineer, and overall great friend. We used to hang out everyday, whether it be jamming or simply cruising around town, he was like a brother to me. I'll never forget his laugh and his sense of humor, I've never laughed harder with anyone besides him. We used to climb up onto buildings and get on the roof tops of our houses just for fun, and he could always find a way to scale anything. Every moment with Jaryd was a fond memory I wish I could relive. The last time I saw Jaryd we went to an Animals as Leaders concert in st pete. One of our favorite bands of all time. We were reunited and had our minds blown by our metal idols. listening to the joy of motion from front to back live was an incredible way to celebrate his birthday. There we ran into another old friend Noah, who we were in a band with in high school. We all had a great time and reminisced on all the old adventures we had and how far we have come, knowing that these moments shaped us into who we are today and inspired us to practice music. I'll never forget all the songs we wrote together and the music we shared with each other. I'd often be listening to bands on Spotify and think "Jaryds gonna love this" sometimes we would just find music with the loudest and most obnoxious bass drops to play out of our sub woofers making the windows rattle. Bands like the Fall of Troy, Hail the Sun, CHON, Saosin, as cities burn, were among our favorites. He even told me he was getting a tattoo of saosin's album "transitioning the name" which is a great album with really cool artwork of a tree on it. I'll never stop thinking of you Jaryd, I love you and I miss you so much. I know you're up there living a better life now and I'll miss you for the rest of mine.-Mike Doig
