I remember so many things about you and your GMC like that one day when you were drifting and that don't feel and that one day when you rolled cold at me all the times you did burnouts in your truck all the times you drove by my friends really fast and your truck all the time is that you took me and you Chevelle and just like that one time when you were leasing somebody in your truck and you blow them with black smoke on the bike and that one day when you were racing this Infinity Q50 and you blow the whole bunch of black smoke at him I love you Dad I'll never forget you and your truck was a LML Duramax diesel
