Norbert G Lague

AUG 26, 1937 - SEP 7, 2025

Norbert Lague 88, passed away on September 7, 2025, in Tierra Verde, FL. Born on August 26, 1937, in North Troy, Vermont. He was known for his calm demeanor, sharp wit, and patient approach to life. Norbert's presence was a source of stability and joy for those around him.

After spending his youth in Newport, Vermont, Norbert began his distinguished career with the US Border Patrol in Cotulla, Texas, igniting a lifelong commitment to public service. His career took him to Niagra Falls and Champlain, NY before his adventurous spirit and love for the outdoors eventually led him and his family to Haines, AK, where they embraced a wilderness lifestyle. Norbert continued his career in Anchorage as a Naturalization Officer before advancing to Deputy District Director. His professional journey was marked by a passion for travel, visiting many countries and impacting numerous lives along the way.

Post retirement Norbert opened the Snowshoe Inn Bed and Breakfast, in Anchorage. There he entertained visitors with tales of the wild, guiding them on many adventures.

A proud veteran, Norbert served in the US Navy, a period that greatly influenced his life and values. His dedication to his country was evident in both his military and civil service.

Norbert was a man of many interests, including wood turning, hunting, fishing, and gardening. His handcrafted wood gifts are cherished reminders of his skill and thoughtfulness. He was an ardent fan of John Wayne, having watched all of his movies hundreds of times. He was known to quote the Duke when imparting his words of wisdom. Most importantly you could find him at his grandson's baseball and soccer games and his granddaughter's baton twirling competitions and events. A well-traveled individual, he boasted visiting all 50 states and ten Canadian provinces. He was a devout Catholic and attended Blessed Trinity Catholic Church.

Norbert is survived by his loving wife of 63 years, Monique, daughters Ruth Lague (Barbara) and Lynn Jennings (Mark), beloved grandchildren Casey Jennings (Nicole) and Claire Christian (Brad), Ken Christian lit a candle in honor of Norbert.

Norbert and Monique rented a part of their home out to my son, now their grandson-in-law, who always talked about their graciousness and kindness. When I visited my son at their home, Norbert took some time to get to know us, and tell us how he enjoyed having my son living with them. He reminded me of my father: kind, genuine, well spoken, very observant, and with full attentiveness to what you were saying. I barely knew him, but after meeting him, I felt like I had known him for a very long time. Our prayers for comfort are with the family and Monique.
