Kendall Janille Willson, aged 28, passed away on December 28, 2025, in Pinellas County, Florida. Born on February 26, 1997, in Fairfax, Virginia, Kendall was a cherished individual known for her humility, love, and outgoing personality. She embraced motherhood with immense joy, deeply caring for her children.

Kendall is survived by her daughter, Isabella Kensley-Janille Persaud; stepchildren, Marcus Persaud Jr. and Arriella Persaud; the father of her daughter, Marcus Persaud; her father, William Willson III; her mother, Katherine Janille Willson; and her siblings, Shane, Kirsten, Kylee, and Skylar. She also leaves behind several nieces and nephews. Kendall was preceded in death by her daughter, Sophia Persaud, and her grandparents.

Visitation for Kendall will be held on Friday, January 9, at 10:30 AM followed by a service at 11 AM. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions can be made to the family to assist with funeral expenses, honoring Kendall's memory.

Amy Cradick lit a candle in honor of Kendall.

Prayers to you all at this difficult time. I remember Kendall when she was younger - she was silly, fun and loved her family! May she rest in eternal peace. Amy and Mike Cradick
