The world has lost a bright light. Daniel fought so hard to survive, he certainly was an inspiration to us all. I was so happy I got to visit him a few weeks ago, he was so upbeat and such a sweet young man. Prayers to the whole Brizzi family as we try to make sense of this heartache.

Dan, you used to come by nightly to see me where I worked at the Marathon on 54th and Park, we had so many laughs together, you came by to help me build a trailer at my house, and I enjoyed stopping at your home to just share thoughts, and even cleaning our guns together. I moved to Springhill, and you battled cancer. I had you give your dad a silver Marine Corps coin, since I too am a Marine. You will be missed my friend, your friendship was very rewarding to me, and I enjoyed the laughs and learned a lot from you, especially about buds. You are with God now my friend, and my heartfelt prayers are with you and your family. God bless.
