

Patricia Walsh Meehan Measel

February 21, 1939 - January 29, 2021

Patricia “Pat” Walsh Meehan Measel, 81 passed away peacefully on January 29, 2021 after complications from recent health battles. A beloved daughter, sister, wife, mother, grandmother, great-grandmother, and friend, she left us too soon.

Pat was born in Manhattan, New York in 1939. She transplanted to Florida, which she called home for the past 45 years. She loved her work at the Albert Whitted Airport, MaHaffey Theater, St. Petersburg Mayor’s office, and Help-a-Child nonprofit, among others. Always a student of spiritual guidance, she began her path early as a graduate of Bishop McDonnell High School in Brooklyn, New York. Her studies and support of the Infinite Way teachings steered her for more than 30 years.

She instilled pride in her Irish heritage to her three sons, eight grandchildren, and six great-grandchildren. Pat loved political discussion, crossword puzzles, George Washington, spiritual growth, reading, and taking long walks.

Pat is preceded in death by her parents, James and Mary Walsh. She is survived by her three sisters, Elaine, Jackie and Terry Charlton, husband, Terry Measel, her three sons, James, Shawn and Patrick, her eight grandchildren, and six great-grandchildren.

A celebration of her life will be held in St Petersburg when it is safe for gatherings.

“ Tuesday I was saddened to read of Pat's passing. Pat and I worked together for several years at the Parent Aide Program. We met shortly after she left the Mayor's office when she came to apply for my assistant's job. As we talked, I knew that I would be so lucky if she chose to work with me. She did and I was. I valued her calm professionalism and our friendship. The last time we spoke (a few years ago) was in the parking lot of a Seminole grocery store. We chatted briefly and parted. I hope she knew how much I valued her friendship!

“ I worked with Pat at the Bayfront Center / Mahaffey Theatre for years and we remained friends up through her work at Help a Child. She was a deeply spiritual person, so gentle. She looked for the absolute best in everyone. She had a keen sense of humor and adored her wonderful sons and Family. She left a lasting impression on everyone. An impression of goodness, kindness, patience, fortitude, tolerance, and love. May she rest in eternal and joyous repose! Heidi Hagedorn Sumner
